

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

NANCY COGGESHALL,

Plaintiff,

Case No. 2:17-cv-01299-KJD-NJK

ORDER

V.

MARTIN O'MALLEY,
Commissioner of Social Security, et al.,

Defendants.

On June 9, 2022, the Ninth Circuit issued a memorandum disposition concluding that the ALJ erred with respect to the consideration of the opinion of Dr. Gisler and that a later award of benefits to Plaintiff was not easily reconcilable on the record before the Ninth Circuit. (#42, at 2-4). The Ninth Circuit reversed and remanded for further proceedings, while also declining to remand with direction to calculate and pay benefits. Id. at 4. Subsequently, the mandate was issued (#43) and was ordered spread upon the records of this Court. (#46). However, since no further action was taken in the case, Magistrate Judge Koppe ordered the parties to file a joint report regarding the status of the case or a stipulation to remand the matter to the ALJ for further proceedings. (#47).

19 Recently, Defendant O’Malley filed a status report notifying the Court that he has been
20 unable to reach counsel for Plaintiff after repeated attempts. (#48, at 1). In addition, Defendant
21 mentioned that “[f]urther administrative proceedings took place, and an administrative law judge
22 rendered a decision on Plaintiff’s claim on April 26, 2024,” adding that “[n]o further proceedings
23 remain before this Court.” Id. at 2. Accordingly, as there are no remaining matters for 24 adjudication in this case, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Clerk of the Court CLOSE the 25 case.

Dated this 16th day of May 2024.
